HOD DESK

I am very happy that our electronics and telecommunication department is handover newsletter of departmental activities for year 2022-23. It is technical platform to bring out hidden talents of student and faculty. The major strength of department is team of well qualified and dedicated faculty who are continuously support the student for their academic excellence. Our Department has organized various activities like guest lectures, industrial visits and workshops

Along with the academics for the better implementation of I –scheme we have started and organized student developments activities such as short term trainings ,micro projects weekly visits to local industries, outcome based education system have been developed. Main purpose of I scheme is implementation of outcome based education where more emphasis on student learning process.
